The Internet Bible Institute would like to express its deep appreciation to the Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry and its Institute of Jewish Studies Correspondance School for permission to use these materials.

The use of quotes from various authors does not necessarily represent an endorsement of their theology. It merely represents recognition of their correct conclusion drawn from the Scriptures in the instance quoted. That is, they have said what the author of this course would say, but they said it first, and therefore deserve the annotation.

WELCOME

Welcome to our course, The Letter by the Apostle Paul to the Romans. This course is made possible through the generosity of the Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry. The Internet Bible Institute serves as a media for helping the modern student to understand God's Word, the Bible. We at IBi believe in the Holy Scriptures, accepting fully the writing of the Old and New Testament, the sixty-six canonical [John 16:13] books of the Bible, as the very Word of God, verbally inspired in all parts and therefore without error as originally given of God, altogether sufficient in themselves as our only infallible rule and absolute authority of faith and practice.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a survey of the Book of Romans written by Paul the Apostle to the church in Rome. It is the goal of this course to give the student a better appreciation of the themes and doctrines presented by the letter. It is our desire that this appreciation will be of practical value to the student in his or her daily life.

This course was originally taught at The Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry's Institute of Jewish Studies. It brings together the expertise of several Bible scholars, recognized for their knowledge of the material and of the Bible. We at IBi thank the Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry for allowing us to use their distance-learning course as the foundation for the course we offer you here.

COURSE INSTRUCTIONS

The following pages are given to you to assist you in understanding of this important book of the Bible.

The student is to listen to the audiotapes for each section, while taking careful notes in the syllabus in order to prepare for the written examinations. There are three examinations in total.

Additionally the student is to memorize "word perfect" three key passages from the Book of Romans. Use the translation you regularly read for Bible study and be sure to indicated the translation used on the examinations.

After studying each section, take the examination without any reference materials or your Bible. The examinations cover only the material contained on the class audiotapes.

Questions are multiple choice and true/false format. You should carefully study and know the major points of discussions and interpretations. The examinations cover only a single section and are not cumulative.

If you have questions, please do not hesitate to ask us either via the Internet, phone, or by notes turned in with your assignments. We are only too happy to answer your questions.
